Röko acquires a majority of Sixty Stores

Röko has acquired 60 % of Sixty Stores Ltd, a multi-channel E-commerce retailer based in Stratford-Upon-Avon, UK. Sixty Stores has a particular focus on E-commerce within the Home and Garden sector, and the company owns and operates eight authoritative websites based on premium generic domains names. Sixty Stores is fast growing and has good profitability.

Sixty Stores was founded in 2011 and has been managed by the three founders who will together continue to own 40% of the company. Two of the founders, Will Letterese and Ben Styles, will remain as Managing Directors. Anders Nordby, Röko's Investment Manager NO & UK, will become the chairman of Sixty Stores.
