Röko acquires a majority share of Rocket Medical Group Ltd

Röko has through a newly formed entity, RM Holdco Ltd, acquired the UK-based Rocket Medical Group Ltd in partnership with members of the Bernberg family and management. Rocket Medical designs and manufactures single-use medical devices for clinical use in chest drainage, ascites drainage, reproductive medicine, obstetrics, and diagnostic medicine.

Rocket Medical is headquartered in Watford, UK, and has its production facility in Washington, UK, from where products are shipped to more than 50 countries. Since the start in 1964 Rocket Medical has been run by the Bernberg family with Robi Bernberg (2nd generation) having been the Managing Director since 1989. Rocket Medical has local subsidiaries in seven countries across three continents and employs 240 people. In its latest fiscal year Rocket Medical recorded revenues of £26m.
